European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (UEMS/EACME)

The European Association for the Study of the Liver® is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS): www.uems.net

The "International Liver Congress™ 2013" is designated for a maximum of, or up to, 27 European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

American Medical Association (AMA)

Through an agreement between the European Union of Medical Specialists and the American Medical Association, physicians may convert EACME credits to an equivalent number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Information on the process to convert EACME credit to AMA credit can be found at www.ama-assn.org/internationalme.

Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

Live educational activities, occurring outside of Canada, recognized by the UEMS-EACME for EACME credits are deemed to be Accredited Group Learning Activities (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.
